

CellBills.com would like to thank you for uploading your cellular phone bills and testing the new CellBills.com Optimizer and cellular phone auditing service. We have had tremendous reaction to our new cell bill cost reduction services. The beta test is in full swing, and we hope to wrap the beta test up soon. We expect we will be going fully live soon. We have had thousands of people sign up for our services in just the last month. We are quickly becoming the fastest growing cell phone cost reduction service on the web. CellBills.com is dedicated to helping you reduce your cellular cost

. As you know, during our beta testing, we are still committed to bringing you a cool new way to see how to save some serious money on your cell phone bills. We would like to see you put some of it back in YOUR pocket.
