

Here is one of the best ways to save money on text messaging.

Do you have a smart phone or Blackberry? Here is a money saving idea that we think you might like. If you sms and use text messaging a lot, and you want to save money on your cell phone bill then forget about paying the extra $5.00 to $10.00 a month for a text messaging plan. You can send free messages to your friends and colleagues phone via e-mail.

It is very easy to do this. You will need the person you are textings phone number. You will also need to know what Wireless Carrier they utilize. You can send them a free e-mail message simply by using the e-mail addresses below. The final thing you need to do is just tell your friends to text you at your e-mail address from now on.

Problem solved and money saved. Good luck saving money on text messaging services.
